

1. Introduction

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (“the Act”) gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information in records held by public (government) or private (non-government) bodies that is required for the exercise of protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, Argon Asset Management (Pty) Ltd (“ARGON ASSET MANAGEMENT”) is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released.

This manual informs requesters of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the Act. It is important to note that the Act recognises certain limitations to the right of access to information, including but not limited to, limitations aimed at reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality, and effective, efficient and good governance, and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

6. Part V - Access to information

Argon Asset Management may refuse a request for information in respect of information detailed below:

1. Personal information belonging to third parties who are natural persons.
2. Commercial information belonging to third parties, if the record contains:
 - (a) Trade secrets of that third party;
 - (b) Financial, commercial scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - (c) information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Company, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
3. Confidential information of third parties, if such disclosure would constitute a breach of duty of confidence owed to the third party in terms of any agreement
4. Information impacting the safety of individuals and the protection of property
5. Information which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings
6. Commercial activities of a private body such as Argon Asset Management, which may include:
 - (a) Trade secrets of Argon Asset Management;
 - (b) Financial, commercial scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Argon Asset Management;
 - (c) information which, if disclosed could put Argon Asset Management at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - (d) a computer program which is owned by Argon Asset Management and which is protected by copyright
7. Research information of Argon Asset Management or a third party, if its disclosure would place Argon Asset Management, the third party or the subject matter of the research at a serious disadvantage.

7. Request procedure

- 7.1. Requests for access to information to records held by Argon Asset Management must be made on the prescribed Form C in the Act (See Annexure A), or from the SAHRC website (www.sahrc.org.za) as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable).
- 7.2. Submit the completed form to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or e-mail address detailed above.
- 7.3. The prescribed form must be filled in with enough particularity to at least enable the Information Officer to identify:
 - (a) the record or records requested;
 - (b) the identity of the requester;
 - (c) which form of access is required, if the request is granted;
 - (d) the postal address or fax number of the requester within the Republic
- 7.4. The requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.
- 7.5. Argon Asset Management will process the request within 30 (thirty) days.
- 7.6. The requester shall be informed whether access granted or denied. If the requester requires reasons for the decision in any other manner, the requester will be obliged to state the manner and the particulars
- 7.7. The requester must pay the prescribed fee (see Annexure B) if applicable, before any further processing takes place.
- 7.8. The Information Officer may sever a record, if possible, and grant access only to that portion which the law does not prohibit access to.

8. Prescribed fees

- 8.1. The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:
 - (a) A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and which is not refundable; and
 - (b) An access fee, which is paid by all requesters in the event that a request is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.
- 8.2. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the information officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.
- 8.3. Information may be withheld until the request fee and the deposit (if applicable) have been paid.
- 8.4. A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure, including making arrangements to make it available in the request form
- 8.5. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer must repay the deposit to the requester.

9. Remedies available when a request is refused

9.1. Internal Remedies

Argon Asset Management does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the information officer is final, and requestors will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the information officer. Information may be withheld until the request fee and the deposit (if applicable) have been paid.

9.2. External Remedies

A requestor that is dissatisfied with an Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a court for relief.

Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with an Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a court for relief.

The courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development, and which is presided over by a designated magistrate.
